About Method Schools

Method is a tuition-free charter school serving students throughout Southern California. Students can earn credit at Method and return to their traditional school, whether it's during the regular school year or during summer. Method utilizes a combination of small classes, project-based learning, and adaptive curriculum to provide students with a personalized educational experience.

METHOD CREDITS TRANSFER AND PUT STUDENTS ON A PATH TO GRADUATION.

WASC Accreditation

Method Schools is fully accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges.

NCAA Approved Courses

Method features an extensive (and growing) NCAA-approved course catalog.

UC a-g Approved Courses

Method has a comprehensive UC a-g approved course catalog to ensure high school students can attend UC schools upon graduation.

METHOD'S INSTRUCTIONAL MODEL GETS RESULTS.

Open Entry/Exit

Method is not just summer school! Students can enroll virtually anytime during the year. There is no need to wait for the semester to begin. Students can also easily transfer back to their original school.

Huge Course Selection

Method features an extensive online high school course catalog from FuelEd, a leader in adaptive, flexible and right-sized online curriculum.

One/One Tutoring

While at Method, students benefit from one-on-one tutoring in math and other critical core subjects as needed.
